

How to take control of code quality

Joel Chippindale — CTO at Unmade

London Python Meetup Feb 2020

I am not allowed to spend sufficient time on code quality

Many, many software engineers

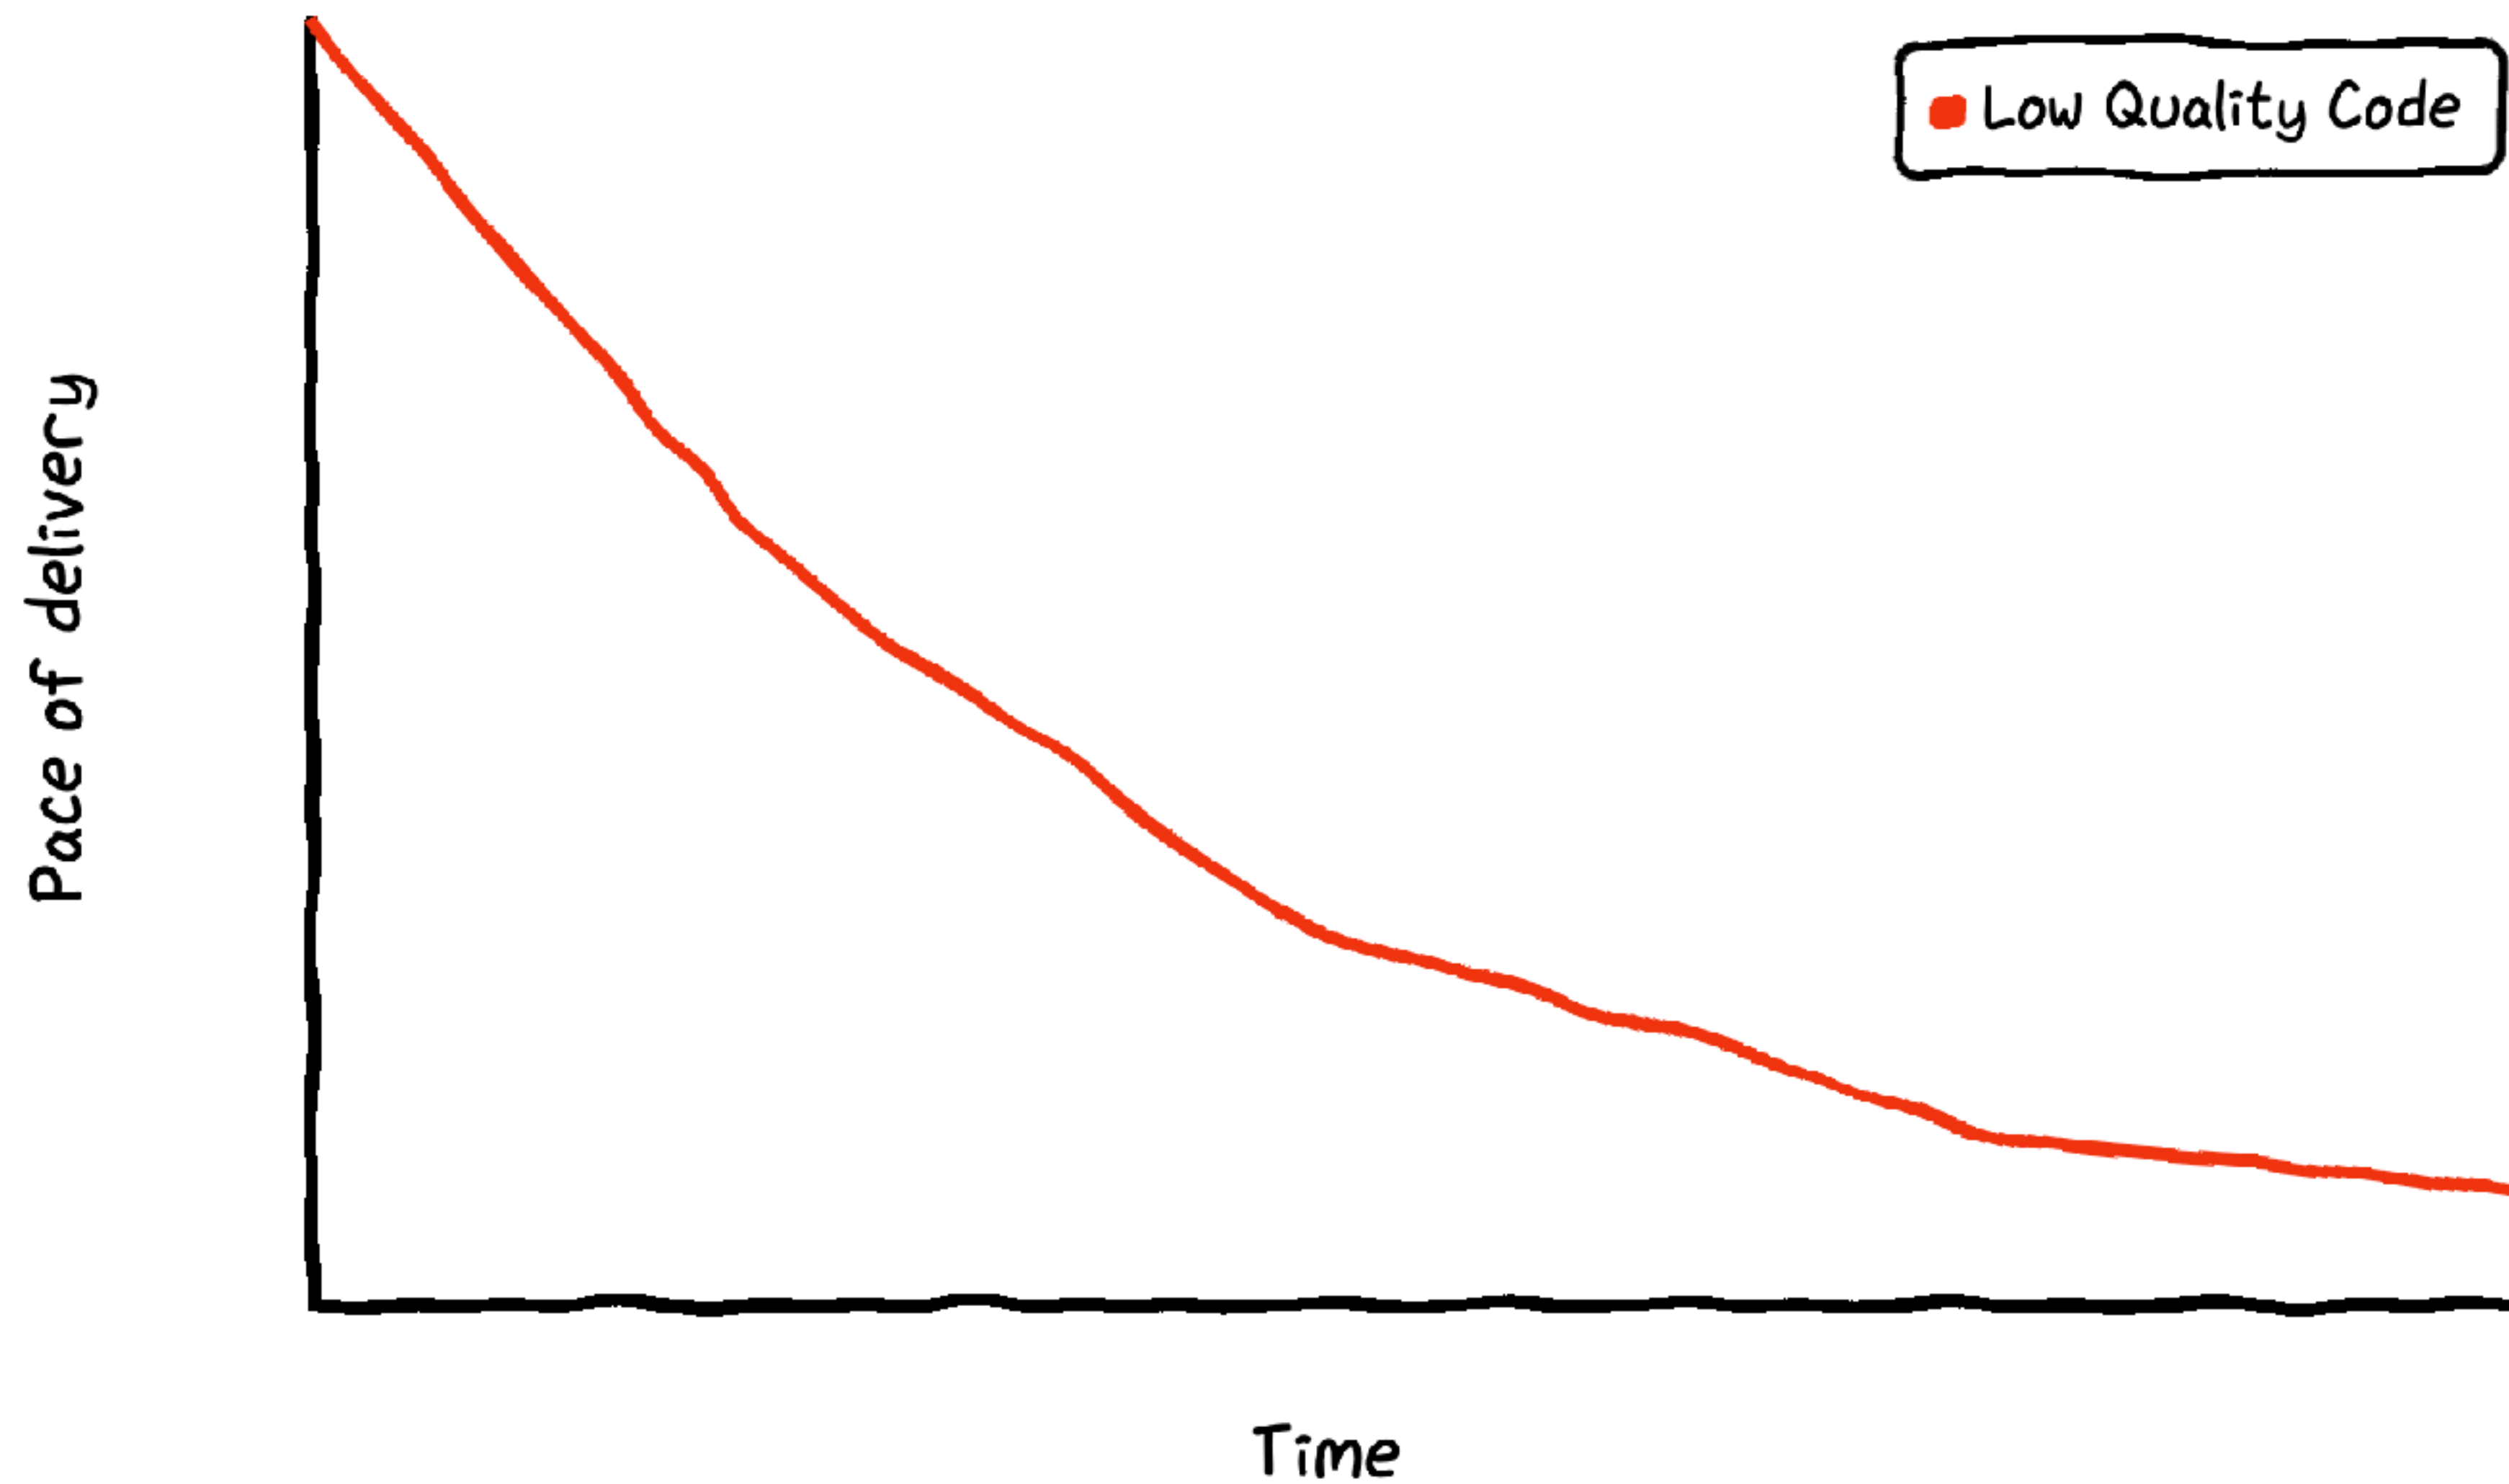

@joelchippindale

Do you feel that you are spending sufficient time
improving the quality of your code?

Do you feel that you are spending too little time
improving the quality of your code?

WHAT DO WE MEAN BY HIGH QUALITY CODE?

Made up graph of pace of delivery over time

Made up graph of pace of delivery over time

High quality code is easy to keep changing

Agile processes promote sustainable development. The sponsors, developers, and users should be able to maintain a constant pace indefinitely.

WE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR CODE QUALITY

UNMADE

BUILD TRUST TO MAINTAIN
CODE QUALITY

@joelchippindale

1. Speak in terms that make sense to others

We need to refactor the model classes to reduce technical debt before we can work on that

What we say

@joelchippindale

Blah blah...have to whiffle the slithy
toves and gimble the frumious
Bandersnatch...blah blah blah

[it's going to be slow and delayed]

What they hear

@pelchior

2. Show that you value the same things

Our highest priority is to satisfy the customer through early and continuous delivery of valuable software

Agile Principle No 1. - <https://agilemanifesto.org/>

3. Don't bullshit

PRACTICES TO SUPPORT CODE QUALITY

1. Shape the solution

2. Scout rule

Continuous attention to technical excellence and good design enhances agility.

Agile Principle No 9. - <https://agilemanifesto.org/>

3. Make a quantified case for larger improvements
